News around the Conference

All delegates have arrived yet. the highlight of yesterday was the Ice-Breaker. It was a great moment we all shared together.

Priska, one of the Swiss delegates, handmade the conference nameplates. In long hours and with a lot of aptness she produced those wonderful hearts for us. We want to thank Priska for her work and wish her all the best for her birthday which was last Saturday!

Hearty Quote of the Day
 "There's nothing more inspiring than the complexity and beauty of the human heart."
 Cynthia Hand, a contemporary writer and author of Unearthly
